

Live on with no Evil.

Once, which seems like long ago,
I used to have a smiling face,
It would laugh every second,
But not now,
All I know now is sadness and no hope,
I once believed everyone could be happy,
Finally, I understand it's a child's dream,
People's faces as white as ghosts,
Stand up to the evil,
Let the good in our hearts envelop us,
And the people around us,
Making them remember all of us,
And our victories,
Live on with no Evil.
